DESIGNATION OF POST AND POSITION WITHIN DEPARTMENTAL STRUCTURE
Headteacher ↓ Assistant Headteacher (Inclusion) ↓ HLTA ↓ Learning Support Assistant
The job description identifies the responsibilities attached to your post. This job description is subject to amendment from time to time within the terms of your conditions of employment, as the needs of the school may require, but only to an extent consistent with those conditions of employment, and only after consultation with yourself.
MAIN DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
The primary role of all Learning Support Assistants is to support learning in the classroom. Learning Support Assistants liaise closely with teaching staff to help students with learning or behavioural problems to concentrate and fulfil their potential. Some of our students have a Special Educational Needs Statement, which goes beyond the ordinary resources of the school. The Learning Support Assistant is there to support their learning and also the learning of others in the classroom, who are experiencing learning difficulties. Therefore, it is essential that the Learning Support Assistant can establish a purposeful and trusting relationship with the individual or small group. 'Firm, fair, friendly and approachable' would be appropriate words to describe the relationship between the Learning Support Assistant and student. You will be working in collaboration with Heads of Department and Heads of Year. There is a career structure in place to enable particularly skilled, experienced and ambitious Learning Support Assistants to progress to a senior level.
INDUCTION
The successful applicant will receive induction and training. The Learning Support department has its own faculty room and resources accessible to all.

THE LEARNING SUPPORT TEAM

Learning Support Assistants are seen as fellow professionals in the classroom; both teacher and Learning Support Assistants are there to support learning and ensure students fulfil their potential. Teaching staff realise that Learning Support Assistants are often experts and can advise them about strategies to deal with a variety of learning needs. The Learning Support team have developed skills in understanding Dyslexia, Dyspraxia, Asperger's Syndrome and ADHD. Courses are available and the school is happy to support Learning Support Assistants who wish to further their own professional development in attaining knowledge of LDDs (Learning Difficulties and Disabilities).
